

Classes taken at Skagit Valley College must meet requirements necessary for completion of your program. Financial Aid will not fund classes that do not meet requirements for your program. Students may be billed in the event that they do so. Additionally, repeating classes will result in reaching the maximum timeframe more quickly.

Students must complete their program requirements within a maximum timeframe in order to receive financial aid. Aid recipients may not exceed _____ of their program length in _____ credits toward degree requirements.

