Writing a transfer or scholarship application essay

Congratulations on your plan to transfer or to apply for a scholarship! Applications like these usually ask you to include an essay or “personal statement” with your application. Admissions teams and scholarship review boards use these essays to get a sense of who you are beyond what they can see in the details of your

- - %+0 . $!$. , Avoid vague and imprecise language (sometimes called “fuzzy writing”). Vague words should be replaced with more specific words that more precisely communicate what you mean, even if it uses words to make your point.

During my summer abroad I met some amazing people and helped with medical services.
